

Motor Vehicle Salesperson

Definition

A Motor Vehicle/Trailer/Motorcycle salesperson assist people that want to buy a vehicle. This includes knowledge of vehicle characteristics, capabilities, features, explaining warranties, negotiating price, and completing sales or purchase contracts. These salespeople generally are employed by dealerships.

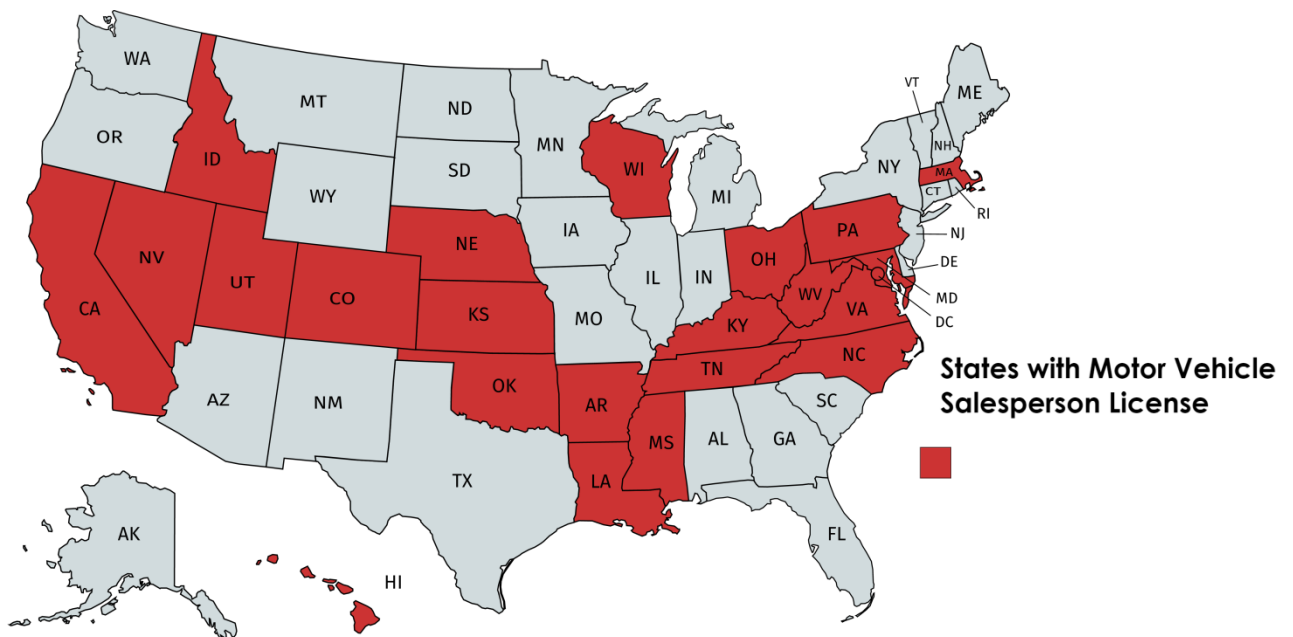

What LB 346 does

This legislation will repeal the requirement for the license. Currently, all motor vehicle salespersons are required to apply to the Motor Vehicle Licensing Board and pay $20 to be licensed. Dealerships are already licensed.

State Specific Information
